Inspection date	18 September 2017
Previous inspection date	16 July 2014

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Good	2

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The manager is aware of the signs and symptoms that a child may be at risk of harm. She understands what to do if she has any concerns about a child's welfare. Staff attend regular training to update their knowledge of wider child protection issues.
- The manager understands how to plan fun and challenging activities for children to support their individual needs and progress, and to complement their learning in school.
- The manager has a good understanding of how to promote children's emotional and physical well-being. She understands how to ensure that children are supervised at all times to keep them safe.
- The manager understands the importance of working in partnership with parents and the host school to ensure an inclusive approach to children's care and learning.
- The manager understands the need to gather the views of staff, parents and children to help her evaluate the service she provides and make continual improvements to the club. She understands the need to keep Ofsted up to date with any changes to the service provided.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the manager how the club will support children's play and learning.
- The inspector discussed the policies and procedures with the manager, and viewed documentation that she will use when caring for children.
- The inspector toured the areas of the premises used by children and discussed the equipment and toys available.
- The inspector discussed the safeguarding and welfare requirements with the manager and took into consideration the suitability checks.

The 623 Out of School Club registered in 2000. The club employs six members of childcare staff. Of these, five hold appropriate early years qualifications at level 2 or above. The club opens from Monday to Friday, term time only. Sessions are from 3pm to 6pm.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the early years foundation stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
